1. EGMA-32135, Att. A, para 2-b. (Source: [ ] on 3
February 1958): Vladimir FRIEDE alias BERLINEC (DOB: 26 January 1924; POB: Leningrad) again wrote several letters from Leningrad to his wife.
FRIEDE also wrote to his former girl friend, Astrid TUTTELHEIM (No DPOB) residing Munich 54, Seehammer Str. settlement. The last letter from FRIEDE to TUTTELHEIM was dated 21 January 1958, and relates that he was pardoned by Soviet President VOROSHILOV and therefore freed from prison. Originally FRIEDE got a three-year prison term for some unclear crime (theft of uniforms?) (Cf. earlier [ ] reporting). [ ] believes that FRIEDE could have been released from prison only with the intervention of FRIEDE's father, who is reputed to be an important CP personality in Leningrad. TUTTELHEIM now praises the USSR and cites FRIEDE's freeing from prison as an example of the good conditions prevailing.
